SECOND INNING PROVES BLOOMER FOR COURTNEY WHO GIVES BROWNS WIN

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

ST. LOUIS July 9.—Well trained Mound City flies, picking on the adorable Mr. Courtney all night at his hotel, causing him to lose his youthful rest, gave the Bowns the second victory over the Griffs here today, 12 to 3. How can a pitcher do good work without his sleep? That's what Mr. Courtney would like to know. He asks you. He doesn't know. Anyway, the same Mr. Courtney handed the Browns their victory in the second frame with two singles, a double, a home run, and three walks. He forcer over one run before he could be relieved. All night long he had tossed on his couch unable to sleep for the itching flies, and while he flung the pill more flies bothered him, all going to the distant fences. Finally he escaped and may have a net supplied him before entering the box again.

Jim Shaw struggled along to the eighth. He allowed hits here and there, but only one run after getting fairly under way until that awful eighth. Then the Browns, slamming him for four hits drove him to the showers. Maybe the flies had both ered him, too, all night.

As things went, he had a cinch. As an example of the snappy work of the Griffs, Pat Gharrity fell a victim of Jimmy Austin's moth-eaten hidden ball trick in the ninth. He wandered off second base and was promptly made the final out of the game amid a loud shout of laughter from the fans.

Judge opened up with a sweet safety to center and was at once forced by Harris. Rice heisted to Williams, but Smith jammed a single to right. Miller came within an inch of doubling to right, but it landed foul by that much, and then he stopped everything with a puny pop to Austin. Mr. Courtney escaped harm for one frame. Then he got his. He made a mistake and fanned Tobin, but came right back with a walk for El lerbe, filling the bases. When he forced McManus across with a pass to Sisler, even Manager McBride called it a day. He yanked Mr. Courtney out of there and let Jim Shaw loosen up his world-famed grunt. Shaw forced Shocker across with a to left, scoring Austin and Ellerbe's pass to Williams, but Jacobson's long fly to Rice ended the painful exhibi-tion.

PITCHER ON CRUTCH MAKES CITY STRIKE-OUT RECORD

A pitcher with only one active leg but with enough kick in his left arm to make up for the defunct underpinning, is a mainstay of the Ariel Athletic Club nine of Benning, which has won twenty games in twenty-three played this season.

Edgar Duvall, whose right leg was paralyzed when he was a shaver, and who now hobbles about on a crutch, has heaved a fourth of the Ariels' games and holds a city strike-out record for the season—twenty-three victims in one game.

The young southpaw turned this trick in a contest with the Industrial Home School nine, in which he allowed four hits and was beaten, 5 to 2, through errors of his team-mates.
